ROCK GARDENING

People everywhere are coming to realize more and more the joy that lovely mountain plants can give to those who grow them. They are easier to grow than is generally supposed, if just a little more than ordinary care is given. The following varieties are recommended for Rock Gardens, rock walls, crevices in rocks, between stone steps and make a charming and neat edging for the garden border. The best time to sow alpines is the very late autumn or early spring.

Gentlemen:

As a much appreciated customer of ours, it is indeed a pleasure to again forward you our catalog. Yet, there are several very important things I would like to be able to be there in person to tell you about.

We've all gone thru a period of under normal conditions and there will be a few months yet to consider, in the climb back to normal.

There never was a time, in business history, when it was more necessary to buy carefully; obtain above average quality for your customers, and secure the best of service and prices when you buy. Not forgetting to have ample stock, when your season is on.

The attached catalog represents the finest in seeds and bulbs; mature and hardy examples of super-quality goods that cost no more than uncertain kinds. The illustrations, descriptions, and prices, represent twenty years of experience of one whose family and nationality, are both back of this industry, for two or more centuries.

May we call your particular attention to the Snap Dragons, on page 6; Petunias, on pages 21 and 22; the Zinnias on page 26; and the seeds for Alpine and Rock Gardening, on pages 29, 30 and 31.

We also want at this time, to sincerely thank you for the patronage you have extended us in the past; and hope to enjoy your business again, this Spring. If there is any special information, about goods or prices, write us at once.

Very truly yours,

Dict:LBS

Olaf Monrad,
MONRAD-PETER BULB COMPANY, Inc.

We furthermore allow 5% discount for cash with orders, which means a yearly saving of 60% on your buying; and, in so doing we prepay postage or express on orders for seeds.
